

Our conference theme: The 82%: White Educators, Educators of Color, and Diverse Student Bodies

This year our conference spans two days: Thursday, March 21 and Friday, March 22 with a pre-conference CRT-L Institute on Wednesday, March 20, 2019.

Our keynote speaker for Thursday, March 21, is Dr. Gretchen Rudham, Associate Professor of English, teaching across both the Accelerated Learning and Honors programs at the Community College of Baltimore County. Examining race and dominance is central to her teaching and research.

Our keynote speaker for Friday, March 22, is Dr. Christopher Emdin, Associate Professor in the Department of Mathematics, Science and Technology at Teachers College, Columbia University. Associate Director of the Institute for Urban and Minority Education. The creator of the #HipHopEd social media movement and Science Genius B.A.T.T.L.E.S., author of the Urban Science Education for the Hip-Hop Generation and the New York Times Best Seller, For White folks Who Teach in the Hood and the Rest of Ya'll Too.
